Fabulous Four Seasons theming dazzled 870 black-tie guests in Burswood's Grand Ballroom for the VIA Tourism Awards. Hosted by Getaway's Jason Dundas and Louise Mombur, the gala night recognised the industry's best over 26 categories with the Kimberley region scooping 50 per cent of the awards. Jennie Bickmore-Brand, daughter of the late Sir David Brand, spoke about the importance of good service before announcing that Willie Creek Pearl Farm had won the coveted Sir David Brand Award for Tourism.
